

Ah, never to lose!

As I recall some
ones lost China

Korea and Nam
winnable, but lowest entities

called politicians
tied the hands
of warriors by making fetid deals

with Left-o scumballs.

Now in the midst of a two eye for
one sectarian blood-trap, cock an ear! Our guys haven't been allowed to win, and thus can't really lose.

From those Brilliances Whose bulldog dogma has brought so much pain

to so so many, and who think the corpses of children proper exchanges

for ideas more pure and more, therefore, transcendent.
